

Luther's Anti-Jewish Interpretation of the Bible: A Case Study in Christian-Jewish Relations in Late Medieval Germany

An International Conference at Boston College
March 25-26, 2018

Ecclesia and Synagoga from Notre-Dame de Strasbourg

This conference situates Luther's interpretation of the Bible, particularly the Old Testament, in the late medieval context of Christian-Jewish relations. Topics include: Christian learning of Hebrew, access to medieval rabbinic interpretations, and Christian biblical reading practices that involve anti-Jewish polemics.
