

Presents as part of its Jewish-Christian Lecture Series

Professor Garrett Galvin

speaking in Prof. Andrew Davis's Book of Kings course

Kings and Messiahs: Reconsidering Kingship in the Hebrew Bible, Judaism, and Christianity

Prof. Galvin's lecture will expand our view of kingship in ancient Israel by adding the more positive perspectives of Chronicles and Psalms to the negative assessments of the Book of Kings. Since Israelite kingship is foundational for Jewish and Christian understandings of messiah, his expanded view will help us rethink some of the assumptions that lie behind the concept in each tradition.
