Summer Institute in New Economics
Reading List
* indicates recommended reading, all else required

6/25/12 Monday

Morning: Gar Alperovitz, “The Emerging Context and its Possibilities” Part 1

Familiarize Yourself with materials available on www.community-wealth.org

*Further Reading if interested (on stagnation)
http://monthlyreview.org/2012/05/01/the-endless-crisis

*Gar Alperovitz - Interview with David Barsamian - Jan 2012
http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=JrsoMpd0ot4

http://www.thenation.com/article/cleveland-model

Alperovitz, Gar and Thomas M. Hanna. 2012. "Beyond Corporate Capitalism"
The Nation, June 11, 2012. Link to Article
Review video on Evergreen Cooperatives:
http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=rQY_jD2NzE

Familiarize yourself with materials available on www.community-wealth.org

*Supplement (Optional) on Theoretical aspects of various forms of socialism (with David Schweickart): http://www.thenation.com/article/168026/beyond-corporate-capitalism-not-so-wild-dream

6/26/12 Tuesday

Morning: Joel Rogers, “Productive Democracy”

Afternoon: James Boyce, “Inequality and Environmental Protection”

6/27/12 Wednesday

Morning: James Boyce and Manuel Pastor, “Environmental Justice: From Toxic Pollution to Global Warming

Afternoon: James Boyce and Manuel Pastor, “Natural Assets and the Economics of Community”

6/28/12 Thursday

Morning: Juliet Schor, “Jobs and Working Hours”
Afternoon: Juliet Schor, “New Consumer Cultures”

6/29/12 Friday

Morning: Duncan Foley, Economies as Complex Systems

Afternoon: Duncan Foley, The Debate over Limits to Economic Growth

6/30/12 Saturday

Morning: Betsy Taylor, From the Theory to Practice: Changing the System

Afternoon: Faculty, Closing Session