The Duffy Lectures in Global Christianity

“21st Century Christianity in Africa: Promises, Prospects and Pathologies”

Professor of Systematic Theology, Hekima University College

All lectures begin at 5:00 pm in Gasson Hall 305

January 25
The miracle of a century: promises and myths of African Christianity in the world church

February 1
Faiths at war: conflicts, contestations, and claims in Africa’s triple religious heritage

February 29
Uses and abuses of Christianity: contemporary pathologies of Christology

March 14
The backbone of the church? Ecclesiological morphology and gender rhetoric

March 29
“An immense pile of filth” human ecology and communitarian salvation

Presented by the Department of Theology