

STUDENT PROFILES

PHD IN ORGANIZATION STUDIES

Greg Fetzer

Year of Expected Graduation: 2021

Hometown: Kearns, Utah

Academic Experience:

B.S. Psychology (Minor in Spanish), 2016
Brigham Young University

Research Interests:

Creativity, groups and teams, meaningful work, identity work, qualitative methods

Publications:

LeBaron, C., Jarzabkowski, P., Pratt, M.G., & Fetzer, G. (in press). An introduction to video methods in organizational research. Organizational Research Methods.

Conference Participation:

Harrison, S, Fetzer, G., Innis, B., & Rouse, E. (2017) "All that you can't leave behind: The self-assessed trajectory of creative careers." Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management, Atlanta, Georgia.

Martin, S., Innis, B., Lee, J. Y., Fetzer, G., Ward, R., & Mendelson, D. (2017) "Social class and perceived task significance." Annual Meeting of the Academy of Management, Atlanta, Georgia.

Teaching:

Teaching Assistant (for Beth Schinoff), Organizational Behavior (BBA course).
Fall 2017

Languages:

English (native), Spanish (professional fluency)

Contact Information:

Greg Fetzer
Boston College
Carroll School of Management
Fulton Hall 214
Chestnut Hill, MA 02467
fetzerg@bc.edu

Links:

Curriculum Vitae
Web Page