Final Exams

Best wishes for a happy holiday season!

If you are going abroad in the spring, make sure you get courses approved before you go!

You must get courses approved before you leave for study abroad. Getting approval will require you to bring a course syllabus to the home department at Boston College and have it approved on a Study Abroad Course Substitution Form (available in Fulton
The deadlines for submitting course substitutions to Student Services are September 29th for spring and summer courses and March 1st for fall courses.

Tips for course approvals:
- The only two Carroll School core classes that may possibly be approved are Organizational Behavior and Operations Management. It is not a guarantee, but a possibility.
- You can only obtain concentration elective approval from the department after completing the core classes (e.g. Basic Finance or Marketing Principles.)
- To obtain approval for Cultural Diversity, students should visit www.bc.edu/core/for-students and click on the “Cultural Diversity Substitution Request Form” on the left. Students can submit their request for approval using that form.

Internship Opportunity: Russell Reynolds Associates

Russell Reynolds Associates is a premier provider of senior-level executive search and assessment. We advise our clients on recruiting and retaining outstanding and impactful leaders, and help them mitigate the risks associated with senior level appointments. We are seeking a well-rounded and dynamic individual who can thrive in a fast-paced, senior professional services environment. Based in Boston, the RRA intern will support a range of functions across our Financial Services, Technology, Non-Profit, Industrial and Healthcare sectors, as well as our Corporate Officers, Board Advisory, and Leadership & Succession sectors. This individual will be primarily responsible for gathering industry, company and personal information, analyzing that data and presenting to the internal stakeholder in an organized manner. See attachment for more details.

Internship Opportunity: Bowery Capital Sales Fellowship

The Sales Fellowship Program is a comprehensive 10-week program designed for university students interested in software sales and software sales management. The program partners with software companies in NYC to allow students to gain exposure to the industry and teach them the necessary skills needed to be a successful sales rep. Fellows will be paired with one New York based SaaS company, of which the fellow will intern with throughout the summer, and learn the ins and outs of being a sales rep. Fellows will gain hands-on experience, mentorship, and networking opportunities at their respective company. In addition, the Fellows will also be paired with a mentor from a company outside of the Program to act as a general confidante and sales consultant during their time in NYC during the summer. See attachment for more information and for application.

Save the Date: New York City Career Fair

Tuesday, January 9th, 9:00 am-5:00 pm, NY Hilton Midtown

Attend the Career & Internship Connections Fair in New York City on January 9th. This popular event allows Boston College students to network and interview for internships and full-time jobs with employers from a variety of career industries.

Actuarial Science Club Launch

Are you interested in the intersection of math, business, and risk, and would like to know more about the field of actuarial science? Are you already interested in actuarial science, but not sure where to go on campus for resources? Would you like to participate in the leadership activities required for launching a pre-professional club? Students interested in an actuarial science club on campus are looking for other interested students and potential club leaders for the next semester. If any of this interests you or you have any further questions, please reach out to Jack McErlean at mcerleaj@bc.edu.
