B. Summary table—resources and expenses for academic year

This table is intended to provide a summary of all of the resources that you expect to have available to fund an academic year at Boston College and all of the expenses that you expect to incur during the academic year. In completing the “Resources” side of the table, please use the estimates you have developed in response to the more detailed questions below. With respect to the “Expenses” side of the table, the LL.M. Office will insert the standard budget for tuition, related fees and living expenses for a single student for the academic year for which you are applying (for 2011-12, the budget was $59,790). You should supply only expenses not covered by the standard budget—i.e., expenses related to your spouse and/or children, if any, loan repayments due during the academic year, extraordinary medical expenses, etc. All references to “academic year” refer to the year (mid-August through May) for which you are applying and plan to be in residence at Boston College Law School.

Founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, Boston College is dedicated to intellectual excellence and to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage. Boston College recognizes the essential contribution a diverse community of students, faculty, and staff makes to the advancement of its goals and ideals in an atmosphere of respect for one another and for the University's mission and heritage. Accordingly, Boston College commits itself to maintaining a welcoming environment for all people and extends its welcome in particular to those who may be vulnerable to discrimination, on the basis of their race, ethnic or national origin, religion, color, age, gender, marital or parental status, veteran status, disabilities, or sexual orientation.

Boston College rejects and condemns all forms of harassment, wrongful discrimination, and disrespect. It has developed procedures to respond to incidents of harassment whatever the basis or circumstance. Moreover it is the policy of Boston College, while reserving its lawful rights where appropriate to take actions designed to promote the Jesuit, Catholic principles that sustain its mission and heritage, to comply with all state and federal laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and in its educational programs on the basis of a person's race, religion, color, national origin, age, sex, marital or parental status, veteran status, or disability, and to comply with state law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of a person's sexual orientation.

To this end, Boston College has designated its Executive Director for Institutional Diversity to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities to prevent discrimination in accordance with state and federal laws. Any applicant for admission or employment, and all students, faculty members, and employees, are welcome to raise any questions regarding this policy with the Office for Institutional Diversity. In addition, any person who believes that an act of unlawful discrimination has occurred at Boston College may raise this issue with the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the United States Department of Education.
