TRAVEL TO BC LAW VIA PUBLIC TRANSIT

You have several different options via the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority ("MBTA" or "T") using the Green Line. The Green Line is a light-rail system and has multiple "branches." The trains look somewhat like streetcars and are painted green. You should purchase your fare prior to boarding the train. For a system map and fare information, please visit http://www.mbta.com/schedules\_and\_maps/subway/.

MBTA Green Line "B" Train to Boston College Stop

Take the MBTA's Green Line "B" train outbound towards Boston College. Get off at the Boston College stop, which is the last stop. Once you get off the train, you will see the St. Ignatius Church directly across the street. The church is on the corner of Fr. Herlihy Drive and Commonwealth Avenue. Cross the street, stay on Commonwealth Avenue, and walk uphill. You will pass the Boston College Career Center and some dormitories on your left. The BC shuttle stop is at the Main Gate of the Chestnut Hill Campus. Wait there until the Newton Campus shuttle arrives; do not take the shuttle that says Commonwealth Avenue. The shuttle is free, no ID is required, and the shuttle usually drops passengers off at Stuart House near the back of the building.

MBTA Green Line "D" Train to Newton Centre Stop

Take the MBTA's Green Line "D" train to the Newton Centre stop and walk approximately one mile to the Law School. We are located at 885 Centre Street in Stuart House. It is a 15-20 minute walk. After you get off the train, take the ramp at the front end of the platform. After exiting the ramp, face left (northwest) and continue walking. Keep going northwest, and continue past the three-story brick apartment building with bay windows, which will be on your left. You should reach the end of the road and now see the large intersection of Centre Street and Beacon Street. You will see Liberty Travel and Starbucks. Press the button for the crosswalk signal so that you can cross over to Centre Street towards Liberty Travel. Go past Liberty Travel and Starbucks and continue north on Centre Street. You will go past CVS after about two blocks. About halfway to the law school, you will come to the intersection of Commonwealth Avenue and Centre Street. Continue north on Centre Street through the residential area. You will see a stone wall and the entrance to the Law School will be on your left.
