Pre Practicum 1 (ED 151) and Inquiry Seminar (ED 131)

During the Pre Practicum you will be making connections between the Teacher Education Courses, your experiences at your school, and the Teacher Education Themes:

✓ Promoting Social Justice
✓ Constructing Knowledge
✓ Inquiring into Practice
✓ Meeting the Needs of Diverse Learners
✓ Collaborating With Others
WELCOME to your Pre Practicum Experience!

Dear Incoming Pre Practicum Student,

Congratulations! You are beginning an integrated theory/practice course that will immerse you into the world of teaching and learning. The following syllabus is a guide that you and your supervisor can modify to best serve your exploration of the teaching profession.

This packet contains materials you will need to complete the Pre Practicum program. Your supervisor will distribute the forms (State Forms) that track and document your Pre Practicum progress.

ED 131 and ED 151 provide the opportunity for you to link the theory you are learning at Boston College to the practice you are seeing at your placement school.

Enjoy your semester!

Sincerely,

Fran Loftus

Teacher Licensure Candidates Information Update **

Reciprocity and MTEL:

1. State regulations for licensure and certification across the country vary widely and frequently change. Students who intend to teach in Massachusetts must take the MTEL in order to be licensed to teach in Massachusetts.
2. Students in teacher education complete an “Approved Program” that leads to reciprocity in most other states. However, any state may, and most do, require candidates to pass its own state “Teacher Test” in addition to acknowledging the BC “Approved Program”.
3. Students who intend to teach in other states are strongly advised, but are not required, to take the MTEL in the event that a state requires a candidate to be licensed, in addition to having completed an “Approved Program.”

Students are urged to research the state licensure requirements for all states which they are considering for teaching positions, and to talk with the appropriate Dean of Students and/or the Directors of Practicum Experiences and Teacher Induction for clarification of those requirements.

Watch for information regarding “Jump Start” meetings about licensure

Students are required to read and follow the policies and procedures as written in The Policy and Procedure Field Handbook

This course meets the requirements for the Initial Teaching License in Massachusetts (previously named advanced provisional certification). Successful completion of all requirements leads to Boston College Endorsement for Massachusetts Teacher License.

Information For Students with Disabilities in Postsecondary Education

If you have a disability, you are entitled by law to equal access to University programs and facilities. The most relevant laws are Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Under these laws you cannot be discriminated against on the basis of your disability. In the University setting, this often means that reasonable program modifications or academic accommodations may be implemented. Advance notice and appropriate documentation are required for accommodations.

The Connors Family Learning Center provides academic support services and accommodations to undergraduate and graduate students with learning disabilities and attention deficit hyperactivity disorder. For more information, please visit the website at www.bc.edu/libraries/centers/connors
If you have a learning disability and will be requesting accommodations please register with Kathy Duggan kathleen.duggan@bc.edu, Associate Director, Academic Support Services, The Connors Family Learning Center (learning disabilities and ADHD).

(Next Page)
To be considered eligible for services for all other disabilities through the Disability Services Office, students must make an appointment to meet with the Assistant Dean for Students with Disabilities in addition to providing documentation of a disability. The documentation serves as the foundation for legitimizing the request for a reasonable accommodation. For more information, please visit the website at http://www.bc.edu/offices/odsd/services/disabilityservices/ or contact Suzy Conway, Assistant Dean for Students with Disabilities, at suzy.conway.1@bc.edu.

Academic Integrity

The pursuit of knowledge can proceed only when scholars take responsibility and receive credit for their work. Recognition of individual contributions to knowledge and of the intellectual property of others builds trust within the University and encourages the sharing of ideas that is essential to scholarship. Similarly, the educational process requires that individuals present their own ideas and insights for evaluation, critique, and eventual reformulation. Presentation of others' work as one's own is not only intellectual dishonesty, but also undermines the educational process.

Plagiarism, the failure to properly acknowledge sources, written or electronic, that are used for verbatim quotations or ideas, is a violation of academic integrity. Each student is responsible for learning and using proper methods of paraphrasing and footnoting, quotation, and other forms of citation, to ensure that the original author, speaker, illustrator, or source of the material used is clearly acknowledged. See http://www.bc.edu/offices/stserv/academic/resources/policy/#integrity for additional details about Academic Integrity.

For further assistance, see the Policy Handbook available online www.bc.edu/lynch school
“APPROVED PROGRAM” TEACHING STANDARDS

Standards for completing the Boston College Approved Program are guided by University, State, and National Standards.

Programs in Teacher Education at Boston College have five unifying themes. Although no single course in teacher education addresses all the themes in depth, each student teacher will have discussed all the themes prior to student teaching. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Performance Standards, as well as the Boston College themes, reflect all student teaching requirements and are included in this course.

Performance Assessment in the Practicum
Successful completion of the Boston College approved program is demonstrated by the documentation, throughout the practicum, of evidence of successful practices using the Pre-service Performance Assessment. This formal assessment incorporates the following Boston College and State Department areas of concentration:

Promoting Social Justice, Constructing Knowledge, Inquiring into Practice, Meeting the Needs of Diverse Learners and Collaborating with Others, in conjunction with Planning Curriculum and Instruction, Delivering Effective Instruction, Managing Classroom Climate, Promoting Equity and Social Justice, Meeting Professional Responsibilities, Assessing and Promoting Pupil Learning, and Demonstrating an Inquiry Stance in Daily Practice.

Professionalism

- Read and abide by the policies outlined in your respective school’s Student and Teacher Handbooks. Turn your cell phones off and DO NOT use them during your time at your placement. Do not use the school computers for your personal business (i.e. checking/responding to your email). Do not talk with your partner or supervisor while your CT is teaching.
- Dress Appropriately. Consider this your warning not to wear: clothing with insignia referring to drugs, alcohol, tobacco, sex, racial/ethnic/gender/sexual orientation slurs, or profanity; skirts that do not reach your fingertips when you are standing with your arms at your side; clothing that is sheer, low cut, or causes your undergarments to be displayed; flip-flops, UGS, etc. If you show up to the site dressed inappropriately, you will be asked to leave and make up the day on your own time and the Practicum Office will be notified. If you have questions about whether or not your clothing is appropriate, ask your Supervisor before you wear the outfit to your placement.
- Be professional in your actions and words; be someone the students and school faculty will respect. Do not gossip or participate in inappropriate conversations with students, teachers, staff, or supervisors. Do not discuss the “adult content” of your personal life on-site. Represent Boston College, the Lynch School of Education, and yourself in a professional and positive manner.
- Your placement provides an opportunity for you to learn and develop as a pre-service teacher. It is expected that you will be respectful of those professionals with whom you will be working.
THE PRE PRACTICUM #1 EXPERIENCE

1. Placement

-The school site serves as the formal placement to complete the student teaching requirements outlined in this syllabus. Each site has its own social context and school culture. Students should learn as much as possible about the school and community prior to and during student teaching to gain a broader understanding of the students.

- The Community of Learners model allows student teachers to work collaboratively with Pre Practicum student teachers as well as other Full Practicum student teachers, cooperating teachers, administrators, and other teachers in the school. Student teachers are encouraged to visit the local community where they are completing their practicum.

- Pre Practicum student teachers may be placed with Full Practicum student teachers to promote collaboration, co-teaching, co-planning, and professional sharing. Full Practicum students are encouraged to mentor these beginning professionals.

2. Calendar

-The Pre Practicum students follow the Boston College school calendar. Full Practicum students follow their individual school calendars where they have been placed.

3. Attendance and Reporting Absences

- Attendance at the school is expected every day the school is in session. Record your attendance on your Attendance Record Form. This form will be copied and included with all final paperwork at the end of the field experience and placed in your Practicum file.

- This includes teacher professional days, workshops, and meetings. Student teachers are not excused from any activities at the school site when teachers at the school are required to be there. A student teacher’s role is to shadow the cooperating teacher and participate as she/he does in all aspects of the school day. Absence as a result of illness, family emergency or other circumstances need to be reported. First, call your cooperating teacher; secondly, call your supervisor. Student teachers are responsible to make both phone calls prior to the absence.

- Acts of Nature – snowstorms, school closings, etc. also need to be noted on your attendance form. Only a call to your supervisor is required.
OVERVIEW OF SUPERVISION

A supervisor will be at the school one of the assigned days of the Pre Practicum. Each of the required meetings with cooperating teacher, your supervisor, and you, has a different purpose and serves to provide a collaborative opportunity to discuss teaching and learning. These meetings and discussions provide opportunities for the evaluation of theory learned in coursework, as well as the possible generation of new theory through teacher research (the development of an inquiry question).

Supervisors will arrange small group meetings involving all Pre Practicum students on site. These mandatory meetings, using the Community of Learners model of Boston College, will be facilitated by the supervisor and organized to support the professional growth and development of student teachers.

The supervisor serves as a visiting coach and the cooperating teacher serves as the on-site coach.

Contact between visits by e-mail or phone is strongly encouraged.

Here is a sample schedule a supervisor might follow during the semester. If you become familiar with this schedule, you can learn to expect when meetings will be arranged with your supervisor.

Dear Cooperating Teacher,

Thank you for hosting a Pre Practicum 1 student teacher from Boston College! This is the student’s first Pre Practicum experience. Your student will be with you one day or more per week during this semester.

You will receive a Certificate of Participation for your Professional Development Portfolio. Cooperating teachers in our Partnership Schools who accept five Pre Practicum students over several semesters are eligible to receive a voucher for a three-credit graduate course at Boston College. Contact Melita Malley at malleym@bc.edu for more information.

Your Pre Practicum 1 student is required to complete the following school-based assignments:

- Learn about the school culture through research and interviews
- Make connections with BC courses through discussion and his or her connections sheet
- Complete a Read Aloud Project that may involve tutoring an individual child or small group,
- Plan and teach at least 2 lessons with his or her supervisor observing both
- Write in-depth weekly journal reflections in response to specific prompts
- Complete a Pre Practicum Pre-service Assessment Plus (3PA+) Form
- Attend weekly discussions with supervisor and other student teachers at school site

Please contact us if you have any questions. Ask the student to share the Pre Practicum 1 syllabus with you. Please note you must sign the attendance sheet to confirm attendance at the school.

Thank you for being generous with your time and expertise!

Sincerely,

[Signatures]

The following is a chronological order of journal prompts for this pre-practicum. You will notice that there are 8 prompts given. The remaining 2 journal entries will be your two Lesson Reflections. Please respond to these in the intended order. Two of your journal entries (the lesson reflections) should be submitted during the appropriate week of your experience. For example, if you teach a lesson during the fourth week in the schools, your lesson reflection would be your fourth entry and the fourth journal prompt listed below would become your fifth entry. Your supervisor will be responding to these entries and may provide you with some additional questions to address.

As part of the Read Aloud Student Project, you are also expected to include a paragraph at the end of each journal that relates to the Read Aloud activity. Please refer to the questions/prompts found in the Read Aloud Handbook.

This journal checklist is for your use only – it does not need to be submitted in your final portfolio.

|                 | 1. What does it mean to be a teacher?
  After speaking with your teacher, respond to the following questions.
  - What does your CT think are the greatest challenges in teaching? What does he/she do to meet them?
  - What do you think are the greatest challenges in teaching? How will you meet them?
  - What skills does your CT think you will need to best prepare for student teaching? |
|                 | 2. Planning Curriculum and Instruction
  Review the indicators of Standard A (Plans Curriculum and Instruction) in the 3PA+.
  - How has the classroom been organized to best utilize the space available to maximize student learning?
  - How would you set up the room? Explain your choices.
  - What factors are taken into consideration by the CT to plan a daily schedule?
  - Ask to see your CT’s plan book. What type of planning does your CT do? How do they use their plan book on a daily basis? |
|                 | 3. Delivering Effective Instruction
  Review the indicators of Standard B (Delivers Effective Instruction) in the 3PA+.
  - What are some of the differences and similarities that you notice between this classroom and what you remember about your own experience at the same grade level?
  - How does your CT engage the students at the beginning of a lesson?
  - Give an example of a clear explanation by the CT. What made it clear?
  - How does your CT conclude each lesson?
  - How will you use this information as you plan your own lessons? |
4. Delivering Effective Instruction

Review the indicators of Standard B (Delivers Effective Instruction) in the 3PA+.

- Observe a lesson taught by your CT. How did your CT make the lesson objectives clear to the students?
- What type of questions did your CT use to engage the students? How effective were they? Cite examples.
- How will your CT assess the success of the lesson?
- Look at corrected homework. What type of feedback does your CT provide?

5. Classroom Management

Review the indicators of Standard B (Delivers Effective Instruction) in the 3PA+.

- What classroom management techniques are used in this classroom? Which do you think are the most and least effective? Explain why by citing evidence in support of your view.
- How does your CT assist the students with transitioning to new activities? Why is transitioning important to classroom management?
- Refer to the four (4) indicators of Standard C (Manages Classroom Climate). Describe how your CT meets two of them and then describe how you would meet the other two in this classroom. Be sure to identify the indicator you are addressing.

6. Student Assessment

Refer to the indicators of Standard F (Assesses and Promotes Pupil Learning) of the 3PA+.

- What types of assessment does the CT use to analyze student learning? How are they documented?
- Describe the informal and formal assessments that are used for this class. What are some of the similarities and differences between the two?
- Based on assessment information, what are some considerations you will keep in mind as you plan your lessons?

Choose two (2) of the indicators of Standard F (Assesses and Promotes Pupil Learning), state what they are and describe specifically how you think your CT has met them.

7. Promoting Equity and Social Justice

Review the indicators of Standard D (Promotes Equity and Social Justice) in the 3PA+.

- Think about your work with your ELL student.
- How does your student respond to you now versus how he/she responded at the beginning of the semester? Be specific.
- Describe how you are promoting achievement for this student. Give specific examples from your read aloud/academic language project.
- What knowledge have you gained from this experience? How will you use it during your next pre-practicum?
- How has this experience helped you become more aware of the needs of ELL students?
- Describe the challenges you faced working with an ELL student. How has this experience helped you become more aware of the needs of ELL students?
Lesson Reflection journals:

For each of these, refer to Standard A (Plans Curriculum and Instruction) and Standard B (Delivers Effective Instruction) in the 3PA+. Choose two (2) indicators from each. As part of your journal, describe how you have met these indicators in your lesson planning and delivery. Provide specific examples of how you accomplished this.

8. Lesson Reflection 1: include the lesson reflection you wrote from the first lesson you taught at the school.

9. Lesson Reflection 2: include the lesson reflection you wrote from a second lesson you taught at the school.

10. Final Journal:

Pre Practicum Self Evaluation:

The final journal is a self-evaluation of the pre-prac experience. Choose 3 standards of the 3PA+ and using your 3PA+ summary sheet, your journals, lesson plans, and feedback from your CT and supervisor, compose a 2 – 3 page evaluation of your performance, progress, and learning this semester. Include your strengths, weaknesses, areas where you have demonstrated growth, and suggestions for areas in which you should concentrate during your next pre-prac.

Cite specific examples (evidence) in support of what you write

This evaluation will be provided to your next supervisor to assist him/her in providing appropriate support for you during the next experience.
Use the information below and the template on the following page to help construct your lesson plans for teaching during your Pre Practicum experience.

- The template offered on the next page is to help you in building and organizing your lesson. With the use of other resources – your CT, supervisor, peers – use this template to assemble your lesson plan (unless there is a required format for one of your classes).

- Your methods courses at Boston College should also help you in the lesson-creating field. Please use these resources to your benefit.

- Your supervisor is an experienced educator. He or she is a resource available specifically for you. Please take advantage of this when creating your lessons.

- If you don’t feel comfortable creating a lesson on your own – or would like to see how an experienced teacher would go about forming one – please don’t hesitate to ask for help from your CT, supervisor, or peers. They are all there to help!

OVERVIEW OF THE LESSON

Overarching Goal: How do you see this lesson fitting into the “big picture” of the students’ long-term learning?

Instructional Objective: By the end of the lesson, (1) what concept, information, skill, or strategy will the student(s) learn and (2) how will they demonstrate that knowledge?

Language Objective: By the end of the lesson, (1) what language, relating to the lesson and lesson content, will the student(s) know or learn, and (2) how will they demonstrate that knowledge?

Assessment: What specific, tangible evidence will show that each student has met the two types of objectives?

- Assessment of the instructional objective:

- Assessment of the language objective:

---

1 Please refer to any read aloud training materials (elementary), academic language training materials (secondary), or any other course materials for decisions regarding which tiers of vocabulary to teach your student(s). Please note that these materials can help you to develop well-informed planning habits that support the effective teaching of language and language concepts to all students.
Content: What are the specific details of the lesson’s content knowledge?

PROCEDURES FOR THE LESSON

In this section, provide specific directions, explanations, rationales, questions, potential vignettes/scenarios, strategies/methods, as well as step-by-step details that could allow someone else to effectively teach the lesson and meet the lesson objectives.

Opening (___ minutes): How will you introduce the instructional objective to the student(s), pre-teach/ preview vocabulary, and prepare them to engage with the lesson content?

During Lesson (___ minutes): How will you direct, guide, and/or facilitate the learning process to support the student(s) in working toward meeting the instructional objectives?

2 Planning Tip: To facilitate the pacing of your lesson, try to estimate (and then write down) the number of minutes for each section.
Closing (___ minutes): How will you bring closure to the lesson and, by doing so, review and determine what students have learned?

REFLECTING ON THE LESSON

These questions and prompts are to be used to guide the post-lesson evaluation and critique of yourself. Remember to look at the syllabus prompt, as well (i.e., regarding the 3PA+).

1. What did the students learn? What evidence do I have to support this claim? Did the students’ learning differ somehow from what I was expecting? Explain.

2. How do I know that all of the students were actively engaged in the lesson? What might I do to improve levels of engagement in the future?

3. What were some of the ways I modified the lesson to address the needs of various students in the class? Provide specific examples.

4. Did I have to modify my original lesson plan by making adaptations while teaching? If so, explain.

5. What do I think were the most and least effective parts of the lesson? For example, how did the lesson materials and/or instructional aids support the lesson?

6. What do I see as my teaching strengths in the lesson? What areas of my teaching need improvement or modification?

7. Which parts of the classroom management were the most and/or least effective? Why? How might this lesson inform further explorations of classroom management?

8. What is my goal for the next lesson? What is one way that my CT or supervisor can support me in attaining the goal?
As a Pre Practicum 1 student teacher, you are required to attend one session of the S.I.T. series provided on campus and write a one – two page summary of the presentation.

- Attend all three sessions and receive a Certificate of Participation
- Full Practicum students are invited as a refresher – attendance is optional if the requirement has been met during the Pre Practicum

This series of three sessions per semester are designed to present important topics that relate to the Boston College themes. You will be notified with S.I.T. locations and times.

Previous topics have included:

- Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse & Neglect
- Making Schools Safe for Gay and Lesbian Children and Families
- Reflections about Teaching for Social Justice in the USA and in Africa.
