7/16

College Prep Seminar: Superheroes: Everyone has a superhero, storybook, or cartoon character they relate to. Which one do you relate to the most (or least)? What does this say about your personality? You’ll learn not only about yourself, but also about how you interact with others. You’ll also gain an understanding of why some individuals, or some teams, are highly effective and others are less effective, and how others could work better together by understanding personality types and personality preferences. Studies and related research findings consistently reveal the importance of personality types and developing personality preferences in understanding the reasons for attraction and gravitation to forming relationships, working collaboratively, and supporting team development. Understanding one’s own personality type, as well as how one interacts with others, is crucial to forming and maintaining healthy and dynamic relationships. Meet in the Fenwick 2 Lobby at 3:50pm, or at Stokes S195 at 4:00pm.

#tbt: You won’t need a #nostalgia filter for this event. It’s Throwback Tuesday and the 70s called, so come on out and embrace your inner hippie by making a tie dye t-shirt! It’s going to be a groovy time.
