

BOSTON COLLEGE

WORLD DRAWING GOD DAY

NOVEMBER 7, 2019

We all have visions of God. But how do you see God? How would you draw God? Join family, friends and Boston College alumni from around the world, on Thursday, November 7th for Boston College's (virtual) World Drawing God Day 2019.

Create your own work of art, whatever that might be, and share your imagination and inspirations with our BC community using the hashtag: #bcdrawinggod

The day was inspired by the children's book, "Drawing God," written by the director of Boston College's Church in the 21st Century Center, Karen Kiefer '82.

We are trying to get as many BC Eagles to draw God on one day. Mark your calendar. To learn more visit: c21engage.org
